

Completed

1. The Victory Club
2. The White Lion
3. The Star Inn
4. Tornari Sports Building
5. Beeston Nursery
6. Craig Dawson's Butchers down to the Sewing Box
7. The Sewing Box
8. Roundhill School
9. The Old Sub-Station
10. Fred Hallams
11. Station Rd Precinct Walls
12. The Hive

Current sponsors are:

The Beeston and District Civic Society, Affinity Photo by Serif, Beeston Round Table, Beeston Nursery, The Star Inn, Beeston Tesco, Fred Hallam Ltd, Northgate Vehicle Hire, UK Powered Access, Nottingham County Council and Broxtowe Council

Completed works:

Victory Club

Canary Girls commemorative stencil by RJ77 Urban Stencils

The White Lion

Wall to rear of the car park, work by Goya Torres

The Star Inn

Stencil of Boon by RJ77 Urban Stencils plus an adjoining abstract work by Anonymous

Tornari-Sports Building (next to The Star Inn)

Works by Aona, Ego Worrier, Tunn, Zane, Damien, Ivan, Carrot Boy and Irek

The Electrical Substation on the old bus station

Robin Hood by Zabou

Beeston Nursery

Work by Smallkid 30

Craig Dawson's Butchers down to the Sewing Box

Dog by Boaster, middle building by Carrot Boy, Jimmy Plasterboard and Motown and Sewing Box by Tali

Roundhill School

Space spaghetti by Tim Onga blends with Lady with Dandelion Clock by Emily Catherine and Light bulb by p0g0 blends with girl with sunglasses by Buber Nebz (These works are visible from the twitchell, which runs from the bottom of Glebe Street to the side of the Town Hall on Foster Avenue)

Station Rd Precinct Walls

Sir Paul Smith, Richard Beckinsale and Edwin Starr by Zabou

Fred Hallam's

Fruit and Flowers by Elliott Caine

The Hive on Union Street

Happy Bee by Aona

Still to come: A stencil of Auf Wiedersehen, Pet by RJ77 Urban Stencils on the front of The Star Inn under the hanging baskets (both TV series were filmed there) plus another commission for Broxtowe Borough Council – location tbc.

Please contact beestonstreetart@gmail.com if you would like art on your property and/or would like to become an official sponsor to be included in future printed tour guides.